SUBJECT: Discuss and File Report of Investments, Including Market Values for Investments, for the Month Ending September 30, 2012.

RECOMMENDATION: Discuss and File

FISCAL/MANDATES IMPACT: None

DISCUSSION:

The average daily portfolio balance for the month of September amounted to $ 1.6 billion. The portfolio yield for the month of September was .67 %. The weighted average days to maturity decreased 25 days to 264 days. The total net monthly earnings were $ 895 thousand. The portfolio has been structured to satisfy the anticipated cash flow needs of the participants. The investment practices and portfolio holdings are in compliance with the investment policy.

The portfolio has been managed with the stated objectives of safety, liquidity and earning a competitive rate of return, outlined in the Statement of Investment Policy. In striving to maintain the primary objective, safety of principal, the County portfolio has received a rating of AAf by Standard & Poor's, the highest possible ranking given by the agency. Regarding the secondary objective, maintaining sufficient liquidity to meet cash flow needs, the portfolio is rated S1+, also the highest ranking given by S&P. In light of the first two objectives the portfolio has on balance outperformed its benchmarks, satisfying the final objective, that of earning a competitive rate of return.

While protests reignited in Europe over the austerity measures that will be part of any bailout solution things in the U.S. remained relatively calm. The economy continued to limp along while a great deal of attention is focused on the upcoming election.

The Federal Reserves Open Market Committee (FOMC), the Feds policy setting body, once again announced that they were going to maintain the Federal Funds rate in a range between 0.0% and 0.25%. In the announcement the FOMC provided this overview of the economy:

...economic activity has continued to expand at a moderate pace in recent months. Growth in employment has been slow, and the unemployment rate remains elevated. Household spending has continued to advance, but growth in business fixed investment appears to have slowed. The housing sector has shown some further signs of improvement, albeit from a depressed level. Inflation has been subdued, although the prices of some key commodities have increased recently. Longer-term inflation expectations have remained stable.

The other interesting thing that the FOMC announced in the press release was that they were embarking on a new round of monetary easing. The Fed announced that “the Committee agreed today (September 13th) to increase policy accommodation by purchasing additional agency mortgage-backed securities at a pace of $40 billion per month.” The intent is to continue to keep downward pressure on long-term rates which should support the mortgage market and ultimately support the broader economy. In addition and perhaps more controversial, the Fed indicated that they would keep this highly accommodative stance even after economic conditions have improved.

Economic data reported during the month supported the thesis of a very modest expansion. The unemployment rate edged lower to 8.1% though the report included a very disappointing increase in non-farm payrolls of only 96,000. The Index of Leading Economic Indicators once again declined continuing to show how uneven this recovery is. Consumer confidence data all showed improvement as did factory orders, personal income and personal spending. The housing sector also showed some improvement as housing starts, home sales and home prices were all a little higher.

Interest rates along the yield curve were largely unchanged from a month-over-month perspective. The mixed economic data along with the Fed's assessment that further monetary easing was needed reinforced this feeling that rates will be locked down for an extended period of time. Short-term rates were about unchanged at very low levels and long-term rates raised by 5 to 15 basis points.

Given the current interest rate environment we anticipate the County's yield to drop modestly. Further, we continue to seek investment opportunities in order to optimize earnings (U. S. Treasury Market graph attached).

Attached is a listing of market values provided by our custodian, Wells Fargo Bank, for all investments for the month ending September 30, 2012. GASB Statement no. 31 states that variances between the cost of investments and the fair value of investments shall not be considered budgetary resources or uses of resources unless the value of investments is permanently impaired because of decreased issuer creditworthiness or it is determined that the Treasurer be unable to hold investments to maturity.
